

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 16, 1883.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

Nice spring lamb at Burkhardt's every morning.

As the white clover blossom is unusually abundant this year, a large honey crop is looked for.

A tea cup of soda dissolved in a pint of water and given as a drench gives almost instant relief to cattle affected with cloot bloat.

There is no danger from fire caused by lighting matches at night to see what time it is, if you use one of Selbert's Meteor Luminous clocks.

A convict by the name of Nick Neal, sent from Daviess county for seventeen years for murder, died in the Penitentiary Saturday morning of lockjaw.

Col. Frank C. Morehead, of Vicksburg, Miss., a former Frankfort boy, has been appointed Commissioner General of the Centennial Cotton Exposition.

The Kentucky Eclectic Institute closed the school year with a delightful reunion of the pupils on Wednesday evening. Miss Amy Stevens was the only graduate.

A party of New York and Cincinnati capitalists are talking of leasing the Mammoth Cave for 20 years and constructing a theatre in one of the large apartments underground.

The Board of Directors of the Paris, Georgetown & Frankfort Railroad met in this city Tuesday and adopted the survey and located the route between Georgetown and Paris, and passed an order to begin the construction at once.

Messrs. Hoggins & Baird have opened a flour store on Main street, in the room formerly occupied by Mr. George Turner as a saddler's shop, and will keep constantly on hand the best brands of flour as well as bran, mill feed, etc. Call and see them.

The Court of Appeals on Tuesday affirmed the decision of the Woodford Circuit Court, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Frank Steele, for the murder of W. G. Welch. He will shortly be brought to this city from Versailles to begin serving a life sentence in the Penitentiary.

Mr. W. J. Chinn, of this city, and Rev. S. M. Neal, of Shelbyville, will offer their entire herds of Jersey cattle at public sale in this city on the 11th of July. It will be one of the greatest sales that has ever taken place in this State. Mr. Chinn has refused an offer of two thousand dollars for one of the animals that will be offered on that day.

Mr. John Kiernan, who shot at Mr. Ned. Conner Friday afternoon, waived an examination Monday, on the charge of shooting at with intent to kill, and was held over to the Circuit Court. He was tried Wednesday morning before Esquire Bohannon, on the charge of carrying concealed a deadly weapon, and was fined twenty-five dollars and given ten days in jail.

The heavy wind of Tuesday evening blew down two large oak trees in the yard of the old Joe Robinson place, on the farm of Mr. Chas. C. Newton. One of them fell on the smoke house, narrowly escaping the dwelling, and the other on the carriage house. Both buildings were demolished, but no other property was destroyed. The house was occupied by Mr. Henry Sargent, and his family all escaped injury, but were considerably frightened.

The bids for the construction of the new opera house were opened by the City Council Thursday night, and that of Messrs. Italy Brothers being the lowest they were awarded the contract, provided a committee of the Council are satisfied by Monday with their bond. The price they agree to put it up for is $18,228.15, and Dr. E. E. Hume and Mr. Sam. South are their sureties that the work shall be done according to contract. The Council has secured the services of Mr. H. L. Rowe, architect, of Lexington, to superintend the work, and the house will be ready for use about the middle of October.

Fine spring lamb at Finck's this morning.

Rev. Mr. Cave, of Bloomfield, will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening, and the pulpit of the same Church will be occupied next Sunday by Rev. Mr. Irvin, of Shelby county.

If you want to catch an early train, you will not be left if you have a meteor luminous clock, for it has an alarm to awaken you, and then its dial shines so that you can see the time in the darkest room. Selbert has them for sale.

No good citizen should fail to give the city authorities their support in their endeavors to enforce the Sunday law. There is no sense or reason in allowing a good law, and one which has for its end the promotion of morals and good order, to become of no avail simply because a few men persist in violating it. Make them feel the penalty to its fullest extent and it will soon cease to be a joke.

John Barnett and five of his gang of desperados, who have so long been the terror of Menifee county, plead guilty, in the Circuit Court at Mt. Sterling on Wednesday, to the charge of murdering Vaughan Helton, and were all sentenced to the Penitentiary for life in the short space of one hour. They arrived at the Penitentiary yesterday morning and are now wearing the stripes. Pretty quick work.

Mr. Joe Murphy, son of Mr. Martin Murphy, before retiring to bed Saturday night, pulled off his clothes and laid them on a chair by a window. After he had fallen asleep some thief raised the window, took his pants out, took from the pockets twenty dollars and some cents and a pocket knife, threw the pants back in the room and left. Neal Kelly, colored, was arrested Monday on suspicion of having committed the crime.

IN MEMORIAM.

DIED.—In Williamsburg, Franklin county, Kansas, June 3d, 1883, Hugh, the eldest son of the late Harry B. Innis, of this county, in the 50th year of his age, of consumption. The deceased was born and raised in this county, where he leaves many kind friends, who will sympathize with his bereaved family. Hugh is gone, and oh, what a shadow has fallen over the hearts of his stricken family to give up, in the prime of his manhood, the faithful husband and father, the kind and loving brother. But why should you mourn, dear friends, when, with a prayer on his lips to be released from earth's trials and sorrows, his spirit winged its flight to the God who gave it. He was a consistent member of the Christian Church with which he united a few years since. He possessed a kind and genial disposition, a loving heart overflowing with generous impulses; and none knew him but to love him; none spoke of him but to praise.
